DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
  - I. Claims 1-28, 32 and 43-51, drawn to an inner conductor for use in a resonator, classified in class 29, subclass 731.
  - II. Claims 29-31 and 33-42, drawn to a method of making a coaxial resonator, classified in class 29, subclass 594.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions Group II and I are related as process and apparatus for its practice.

The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand.

3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

4. If applicant elects Group I, then Group I contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

Species A, drawn to an inner conductor for claims 1-11 and 43-47.

Art Unit: 3729

Species B, drawn to an apparatus for forming an inner conductor for claims 12-16.

Species C, drawn to a coaxial resonator for claims 17-28.

Species D, drawn to a flanging fixture for claims 32.

Species E, drawn to an apparatus for forming an inner conductor for use in a coaxial resonator for claims 48-51.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, there is no generic claim.

If applicant further elects Species A, then

Species AA, drawn to formed flange including a planar transverse surface for claims 2 and 44.

Species AB, drawn to formed flange including a curved surface for claims 3, 5-11, 45 and 47.

Species AC, drawn to formed flange including a curved backward on itself for claims 4 and 46.

Currently, Claims 1 and 43 are generic claims.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

5. If applicant elects Group II, then Group II is required further restriction to one of the following inventions:

- III. Claims 29-31, drawn to a method of making a coaxial resonator, classified in class 29, subclass 594.
- IV. Claims 29-31 and 33-42, drawn to a method of making a flanged body, classified in class 29, subclass 594.

Art Unit: 3729

6. Inventions Group III and IV are related as combination and subcombination.

Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination (Group III) as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination (Group IV) as claimed because the combination (Group III) as claimed does not require an expending tool having a first diameter and a second diameter, the second diameter is greater than the first diameter. The subcombination has separate utility such as an expending tool having a first diameter and a second diameter.

7. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

8. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

9. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

10. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Paul D. Kim whose telephone number is 571-272-4565. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Friday between 7:00 AM to 3:00 PM.
